

Box 6.11c: Rewrite together

Questions about content

- 1 What do you like about Text A?
- 2 What is the best phrase or sentence in Text A? Why?
- 3 What do you like about Text B?
- 4 What is the best sentence in Text B? Why?
- 5 Which text is better, according to you, and why?
- 6 In both texts, more information is needed for the reader to understand who Phillip is. Add two sentences to one of the texts where you give some background information to help explain.
- 7 In Text A, Timothy didn't answer. Add something to the text to explain why not.
- 8 In Text B, it's unclear where Willemstad is. Add some information to the text to make that clearer.
- 9 Text B doesn't have an introductory sentence. Add a good one.

Questions about language

- 10 Are all the words with capital letters right? Should some other words have capital letters too?
- 11 Underline all the present and past tenses in both texts. Correct the ones which are used incorrectly.
- 12 Find two spelling mistakes in Text B and correct them.
- 13 In Text A, the following isn't a complete sentence. 'When Germans became a threat to the island of Curacao.' Can you either link it to another sentence or make a complete sentence?

Questions about content

- 1 What do you like about Text A?
- 2 What is the best phrase or sentence in Text A? Why?
- 3 What do you like about Text B?
- 4 What is the best sentence in Text B? Why?
- 5 Which text is better, according to you, and why?
- 6 In both texts, more information is needed for the reader to understand who Phillip is. Add two sentences to one of the texts where you give some background information to help explain.
- 7 In Text A, Timothy didn't answer. Add something to the text to explain why not.
- 8 In Text B, it's unclear where Willemstad is. Add some information to the text to make that clearer.
- 9 Text B doesn't have an introductory sentence. Add a good one.

Questions about language

- 10 Are all the words with capital letters right? Should some other words have capital letters too?
- 11 Underline all the present and past tenses in both texts. Correct the ones which are used incorrectly.
- 12 Find two spelling mistakes in Text B and correct them.
- 13 In Text A, the following isn't a complete sentence. 'When Germans became a threat to the island of Curacao.' Can you either link it to another sentence or make a complete sentence?